ANNUAL PALM SUNDAY SERVICE HELD

The Annual Palm Sunday Service of the Port Chester Fire Department was held on Sunday evening, April 17th, 2011 at St. Paul's Church with 100 members and friends in attendance.

The service started with the Prelude "Firefighters Procession" lead by Pastor Jim O'Hanlon and Deacon George Marshall along with the 3 Fire Chiefs and members of the Port Chester Fire Department. Deacon Marshall was called upon to lead us in the "Prayer of Commitment". This was followed by the Offering of Song... "Precious Lord" by Kristin Quell Garguilo. A reading from St. Paul's first letter to the Thessalonians followed the Offering of Song.

Deacon Marshall was called upon to lead the Memorial with a prayer. He turned the service over to the 3 chiefs of the department. As Chief Kevin McFadden read off the name of each departed brother, Chief Kevin McMinn lite a candle in memory and Chief Ed Quinn tolled the bell once for each member of the department. Members called home to eternal life since Palm Sunday 2010:

Karl Herbst.....Reliance

Peter Damiano.....Putnam

Past Chief Harry

Hayes...Washington

Past Capt. George

Lund....Washington

After the Memorial, Pastor O'Hanlon lead us in the Psalm 23... "The Lord is my shepherd."

An Offering was collected from everyone and is donated to the Burn Victims Unit.

At the conclusion of the service, Prayers for Intercession and the Our Father were said.

Dismissal followed by Deacon Marshall "Go in peace, serve the lord". Thanks be to God.

Many thanks goes to Pastor O'Hanlon & Deacon Marshall for the service. Also thanks to Corinne Conway our organist, Kristen Quell Garguilo our soloist and Michael Quell Garguilo our Usher.

Palm crosses were given out to anyone wanting them.

62ND ANNUAL MEMORIAL MASS & BREAKFAST HELD

On Sunday morning, May 15th, 2011 rainy and early, the members of the Port Chester Fire and Police Departments and their guests gathered for the 62nd Annual Fire and Police Departments Annual Memorial Mass & Breakfast at 7:30 A.M..

At 7:45 A.M., both the Fire and Police members and guests marched from Port Chester Fire Headquarters to Our Lady of Mercy Church for the 8:00 A.M. Mass.

The Mass was performed by Reverend Robert Starr and Department Chaplain George Marshall. The Mass and Breakfast is one of the three times during the year the department members pay their respects to their departed comrades.

After the Mass, everyone headed to the Port Chester Senior Center for breakfast and a short program.

Chairman James Cahill of the host department, Port Chester Police welcomed everyone to the 62nd Mass and Breakfast.

A Pledge to the Flag followed and was followed by Invocation by Chaplain George Marshall.

As the Head Table and Table Numbers were called everyone went to the buffet table to serve themselves. Among the foods prepared were eggs, bacon, sausage, home fries, steak, bagels, sweet rolls, juice and coffee prepared by Hubbard's Cubbard Caterers.

After breakfast was served and enjoyed by everyone, Toastmaster Jeff Hartrey conducted a short program. County Legislator Martin Rogowsky and Assemblyman George Latimer were recognized as being in attendance. Also recognized were Port Chester Mayor Dennis Pilla and his guests, Rye Brook Mayor Joan Feinstein and her guests, Chief Kevin Mcfadden and his visiting chiefs, Chief Kevin McMinn and the list of Past Chiefs, Chief Edward Quinn introducing his guests, Port Chester Police Chief Joseph Krzeminski and Rye Brook Chief Greg Austin.

The Toastmaster followed with

PORT CHESTER FIRE DEPARTMENT HOLDS ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE AT LYONS PARK MONUMENT

The Annual Memorial Service of the Port Chester Fire Department was held on Friday evening, June 10th, 2011 at the Lyon's Park Fireman's Monument.

At 7:00 P.M., Chief Kevin McFadden opened the Annual Memorial Service with the presentation of the flag colors to the monument by all seven village fire companies color guards. This was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Deacon George Marshall was upon to lead us in the Invocation.

Chief McFadden introduced all village and local guests in attendance to say a few words.

Chief Kevin McMinn followed with the introduction of the Past Chiefs of the Port Chester Fire Department.

Chief Edward Quinn was then called upon to have the officers from each company make their flag presentation to the Monument. Each group of officers walked up to the monument, placed a US flag in their company grave marker, saluted and returned to rank.

Chief McFadden followed by calling upon Chief McMinn and Chief Quinn to present the Department Memorial Wreath in front of the monument and salute.

After the wreath was presented to the monument, the names of this years departed members was read off as follows, Karl Herbst, Reliance, Peter Dimiano, Putnam, Past Chief Harry Hayes and Past Captain George Lund, Washington Park. As each name was read off, the bell was tolled one time for each member.

This was followed by taps on the trumpet.

Deacon Marshall was called upon to say the closing prayer after a few quick speeches from invited guests.

The return of colors to the ranks concluded this years memorial service.

The chiefs thanks all members for their turnout this year.

OSHA QUICK CARD™

Protect Yourself Heat Stress

When the body is unable to cool itself by sweating, several heat-induced illnesses such as heat stress or heat exhaustion and the more severe heat stroke can occur, and can result in death.

Factors Leading to Heat Stress

High temperature and humidity; direct sun or heat; limited air movement; physical exertion; poor physical condition; some medicines; and inadequate tolerance for hot workplaces.

Symptoms of Heat Exhaustion

- Headaches, dizziness, lightheadedness or fainting.
- Weakness and moist skin.
- Mood changes such as irritability or confusion.
- Upset stomach or vomiting.

Symptoms of Heat Stroke

- Dry, hot skin with no sweating.
- Mental confusion or losing consciousness.
- Seizures or convulsions.

Preventing Heat Stress

- Know signs/symptoms of heat-related illnesses; monitor yourself and coworkers.
- Block out direct sun or other heat sources.
- Use cooling fans/air-conditioning; rest regularly.
- Drink lots of water; about 1 cup every 15 minutes.
- Wear lightweight, light colored, loose-fitting clothes.
- Avoid alcohol, caffeinated drinks, or heavy meals.

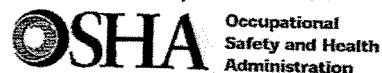

What to Do for Heat-Related Illness

- Call 911 (or local emergency number) at once.

While waiting for help to arrive:

- Move the worker to a cool, shaded area.
- Loosen or remove heavy clothing.
- Provide cool drinking water.
- Fan and mist the person with water.
